

ISETAN

www.isetan.co.jp

About ISETAN

Established in 1886, Isetan aims to become the department store that provides customers dreams and excitement of shopping, with "customer first" philosophy.

Tax Free

Amount requirement: Accumulative daily purchases of ¥10,001 (excluding tax) or more in one day.

Interpretation / Attendant Service

English, Chinese and Korean speaking staff will assist your shopping in the Main Building and the Men's Building.

Money Exchange

Money exchange machine provides exchange of 8 currencies.

Hotel Delivery

For purchases made at Isetan, we provide free delivery service to designated hotels.

ISETAN Foreign Customer Service

6F, Main Building, Isetan Shinjuku Store Direct Tel. No. 03-3225-2514
Email: iclub@isetanmitsukoshi.co.jp (available in English or Japanese text only)

FASHION HEADLINE

Delivering the latest world's fashion news to Japan and the trendiest Asian fashion news to the world. Reach the Japanese market with Fashion Headline.

VISIT US NOW !!

<http://en.fashion-headline.com/>

TimeOut Tokyo

Shinjuku Guide Map

101 things to do in Shinjuku

2nd edition

新宿ゴールデン街

KNOW MORE.
DO MORE.
www.timeout.jp

001

Gaze out over Tokyo, for free

When you're looking to get up high but don't feel like paying for the privilege, head to the Tokyo Metropolitan Government Building's two free 45th-floor observation decks, which provide beautiful sunset views and the chance to spot Mt Fuji. Tokyo Metropolitan Government Building Observat

002

Café

Get jazzed up

Dug is one of the celebrated establishments from the 1960s heyday when Shinjuku was sprinkled with jazz coffee shops, so it's got serious credentials.

Dug 2-C

003

Café

Have tea with cats

Enjoy an elegant 'necone' scone, or filling lunch under the watchful eye of adorable pet cats Kaiser and Oujo - the shop's name means 'cat' in German - at this black tea specialist shop.

Die Katze 3-D

004

Restaurant

Fuel romance with oysters

Oysters are always a good date dish, and here you'll be treated to a wide selection of varieties and only the freshest ingredients from top quality producers. The setting's good for relaxed romance, too - it's in a renovated historic building and overlooks the park below.

Ostrea 3-C

005

Shopping

Snack on artisanal baguette

The Calpis Butter Baguette is so popular it sells out pretty much as soon as it hits shelves. But even if you miss out on this there are plenty of other delicious baguette and creative breads at this bakery.

Pan-ya no Don 5

006

Art

Take time out for photos

Got a few minutes to spare? Marvel at world-class shots in this Konica Minolta gallery, which is located right by the station and regularly displays the work of renowned photographers. Entrance is free, too.

Konica Minolta Pl

007

Bar

Sip rare whisky while watching vintage films

Choose from 300 varieties of Japanese whisky many of which are no longer on the market then sip on your evening malt while owner Atsushi Horigami treats you to an old siler comedy or vintage animation.

Zoetra

008

Restaurant

Eat Beijing style

Swallow's nest is just one of the unusual ingredients at this Beijing cuisine restaurant founded in 1963. For appetisers, try the Pidan Tofu (prepared at your table) and saucy special boiled gyoza.

Zuien Beki